

Sheena Heueston
Wardrobe Supervisor

The Wardrobe Supervisor is responsible for the costuming of all public, and some workshop LAMDA Productions, in liaison with the Designer and, when required acts as Costume Designer for public Academy Productions. She is also responsible for the care and maintenance of the Academy's costume stock. She gives lectures in basic Wardrobe techniques to the Stage Management students.

Sheena holds a B.A. (Hons) Design - Textile Design and Print Making. Her past positions include; Webber Douglas Academy of Dramatic Art - Assistant Wardrobe Mistress. Edinburgh International Festival - Wardrobe Supervisor. Self Employed Business based in Edinburgh designing and constructing Historical and fashion garments to order. National Trust for Scotland. Researcher and Costume designer/maker

Recent freelance work includes: 20 Costumes for Warwick Castle programme of authentic mediaeval banquets
Remaking costumes for The Sphinx Theatre Company